We invite you to become of a member of Dharma Eye Zen Center.

Your membership supports our offerings of meditation, classes and retreats, our informational and educational website, rentals for meditation practice, and the various altar and mediation supplies we use.

Dharma Eye Zen Center practice was founded by zen teacher and former Central Abbot of San Francisco Zen Center Myogen Steve Stucky, an ordained Zen priest in the Soto Zen lineage of Suzuki Roshi, of San Francisco Zen Center. The Dharma Eye community is lead by its senior members.

Our meditation practices are open to the public, and in keeping with ancient tradition we offer them at no charge. All are welcome whether members or not. Your membership allows you to participate in DEZC decision making and attend board meetings. All membership fees are tax deductible as a 501C charitable organization.

Membership application: 2016

Our practice is fully member supported. Members can participate in all DEZC events, vote for board members, and have regular practice discussion. They also receive discounts on classes and retreats.
